

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. A mass meeting of workmen under the auspices of the American Central Workmen's Union was held on Saturday night in Mechanics' Hall, on Third street, below Green.

The corner stone of the new St. George's P. E. church, at Sixty-sixth and Hazel avenue, was laid on Saturday afternoon. Night Rev. Bishop Stevens performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. D. Maison, the pastor.

Company A, Frisbush's Cavalry, made a street parade yesterday, and proceeded to Frankford Cemetery, and strewed with flowers the graves of soldiers there buried that had not previously been decorated.

Yesterday afternoon E. D. Baker Post, No. 8, G. A. R., visited Glenwood Cemetery and decorated the graves of about five hundred fallen soldiers. The ceremonies were of an impressive character.

Early yesterday morning the bakery of Mr. Thomas, No. 707 South Eleventh street, was entered through the basement by a burglar, who worked his way into the upper story, where he succeeded in pulling the fireproof from its place into the yard, where he blew the door open with powder. The noise caused by the explosion drew Officer Ryan to the spot, and he arrested a man coming from the gate, whom he had locked up at the Central Station. The burglar, who gave the name of George Jeffries, will have a hearing to-day before Alderman Kerr.

Domestic Affairs. Gold closed on Saturday at 114.

Three men were killed by lightning in Chicago yesterday.

Whittmore is returned to Congress by a large majority.

Chabot, ex-Mayor of Richmond, has been indicted for forgery.

Further Indian outrages are reported from Bear Creek, Kansas.

Saguenay river, in the neighborhood of Trinity Bay, is again the scene of great destruction by fire.

The indications in Washington are that Mr. Schenck's tariff clause in his Tax bill will pass to-day.

Delegates from British Columbia are in Ottawa to arrange for the admission of that province into Confederacy.

A bill removing the disabilities of some six thousand persons has been reported by the Senate Select Committee.

The Senate on Saturday confirmed the President's appointment of Wayne McVeigh, Esq., as Minister to Turkey. Mr. McVeigh sails for Turkey on the 14th inst.

The ram Atlanta is given up as lost, at least by Surgeon Hutchings, of New York, that official having on Saturday granted letters of administration on the estate of Sidney Oaksmith, who sailed in her from Philadelphia.

In the United States Senate on Saturday, after the close of our report, the Indian Appropriation bill was considered, pending which the Senate adjourned.

In the House the opponents of General Schenck's tariff amendment to the Tax bill continued to filibuster until the hour of adjournment.

Foreign Affairs. Yellow fever was raging with great violence at Rio at the date of last advices.

Large quantities of arms have, it is said, been recently despatched to the Cuban insurgents.

The Englishmen recently captured by Spanish brigands have been released.

The expected ministerial crisis in France has been averted by a vote in the Corps Legislatif on Saturday.

An English shipping journal calls for joint action by England and the United States against the extortions practised upon vessels arriving in Cuban waters.

Montpensier's chance of gaining the Spanish crown is regarded as lost, the Cortez having resolved that no candidate shall be elected unless he receive a majority equal to one-half the full number of Deputies.

A cable despatch from London says: "Despatches from the United States announce the receipt of news of massacre of Jews by Christians in Rumania. No advices have reached here on the subject, and the Continental news agency deny that there has been any recent outrages upon the Jews of Rumania. A despatch from Bucharest states that a riot occurred last week at Botucubally, a village in Moldavia, during a local election. It is described as an ordinary political disturbance, being quelled without the interference of troops.

Destructive Fire. About 11 o'clock on Saturday night a fire was discovered in the third story of the building, Nos. 15 and 17 South Third street, owned by J. G. Rosengarten & Son, occupied by J. B. Cornet, manufacturer of dress trimmings, etc., and before the flames were extinguished, the fourth and fifth stories were burned out, and several adjoining buildings damaged by fire and water. Cornet's loss on machinery, stock, etc., will reach, it is supposed, from $15,000 to $25,000. The law and collection office of Fairthorne & Rand occupying the first floor, was not reached by the fire. All the more valuable books and papers were wholly uninjured being in three large fireproofs, and the remainder received but slight damage, owing to the promptness with which they were protected by the insurance patrol. No interruption to the business of the firm will be caused by the fire. William Allen's restaurant in the basement of No. 17 was also flooded. The loss is estimated at about $500,000. The second story, occupied by the Drug Exchange Association, was also damaged by water. The flames extended to the sixth story of building No. 13, owned and occupied by W. A. Drown & Co., who lose by water and fire from $10,000 to $15,000, which is fully covered by insurance. This firm also have a store at No. 216 Market street, and joins the Third street building at the rear, but iron doors between the two buildings prevented the spread of the flames in that direction.

Tener & Co.'s law and collection offices were in the first story of No. 13 South Third street. They lose from $500 to $600 by water, which is covered by insurance. Building No. 19, owned by Thomas and John L. Lawson, was also damaged by water. J. M. Chase, manufacturer of shoe uppers, occupied the upper stories, and Mr. W. Ledyard, banker, the first story, and both parties suffered considerable loss by the constant stream of water flowing into the building. Mr. Chase's loss is covered by insurance.

J. B. Cornet estimates his loss at $25,000, on which there is an insurance in the Royal of $5000, and in the Spring Garden Insurance office of $5000. The building is owned by Dr. Rosengarten, who estimates his loss at $20,000.

The insurance patrol were on the ground and saved a large quantity of goods, by the covers which they placed over them. The stock of Newberger & Hochstader, clothiers, at the S. E. corner of Third and Market streets, was damaged to the extent of $500 by water—covered by insurance.

About 2 o'clock yesterday morning the wharfright shop of a Mr. Brown, on Jefferson avenue, above Washington, was slightly damaged by fire. Supposed incendiary.

About 4 o'clock yesterday morning the frame stable of Mr. R. J. Dobbins, situated above Broad street, and above Vine, was damaged by fire to the extent of about $500. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

A slight fire occurred yesterday at the residence of Dr. Fleming, No. 2207 Callowhill street.

PILES CAN BE CURED!

DR. GALLAGHER'S CELEBRATED VEGETABLE PILE CURE

Is a quick, safe, sure, and effectual Remedy for BLEEDING, BLIND, OR TUBING PILES, PROLAPUS ANI OR FALLING OF THE RECTUM, CONSTIPATION OF THE BOWELS, ETC.

The application and use of this remedy, as well as its effects, are quite different from all others heretofore prescribed for the above-named diseases. Its principal virtues are derived from its internal use, regulating the Liver and Kidneys, and imparting health and vigor to the whole alimentary canal. It is specific in its action, completely controlling the circulation of the blood in the hemorrhoidal vessels.

The afflicted can rely with the utmost confidence in this medicine, because the great success that it has met with since its introduction is a sure indication of its real value. For inward and outward applications, if used as directed, it cannot fail to give the fullest satisfaction.

PRICE OF SINGLE BOTTLES, $1. SIX BOTTLES, $5. All Respectable Dealers and Druggists sell it.

CAUSES OF THE DISEASE. The causes of these complaints are numerous, and are usually in many instances hereditary; but a sedentary and studious habit, luxurious living, high-seasoned and stimulating food, the immoderate use of spirituous drinks, the very free use of strong coffee and tea, mental depression, sorrow, and grief; in short, whatever tends to weaken the digestive organs may be considered the most active general causes.

The afflicted can rely with the utmost confidence in this medicine, because the great success that it has met with since its introduction is a sure indication of its real value. For inward and outward applications, if used as directed, it cannot fail to give the fullest satisfaction.

PREPARED ONLY BY B. F. GALLAGHER, NO. 308 N. THIRD STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

NO CURE, NO PAY! FOX'S CHAMP AND DIARRHEA MIXTURE has proved itself to be the most rapid and effectual remedy for Cholera, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, and all stages of Asiatic Cholera. No family or traveling party should be without it. It is sold at all druggists and chemists, and is also sold at the following wholesale and retail prices: Wholesale, $1.00 per doz.; Retail, 50 cents per doz.
